Reviewing a Year of Blessings

The work was often quietly done, without much fanfare, so it would be easy to miss the many accomplishments of the year that has just past. But they are too wonderful to just let them go un-noticed.

It can be risky to begin naming names – lest someone be forgotten, but wouldn't it be sad if we missed thanking people at all? So, I, with a little trepidation, have put together the following list of accomplishments of 2016, in thanksgiving for all the blessings we have been given. If my mind slipped and I forgot someone or something important, please be sure to let me know. Let no good deed go unnoticed!

Winter: We really spruced things up in the narthex and accompanying spaces. A troop of painters and all-around muscle contributed to the effort.

Thanks go to:

- Aylis and George Wolf for painting the handicapped bathroom in the hallway.
- Connor Klotzbach, Deb Stoddart and Dave Walton for cleaning the carpet.
- Heidi, Lauren and Karl New, Linda McGuigan Miller, Martin Bowman and Anthony Castagna with help in painting and installing new ceiling tile.
- John Caughie, Bruce and Linda Nicholson, Deb Stoddart for help with painting.
- John Caughie and Tony Lawson worked together to provide a larger, secure mailbox.

Spring: We began planning for the future in several significant ways. Karl New, Alan and Hennie Kiel, Bruce Nicholson, Marilyn Zembower and Lyn Werner, as former wardens, met to learn more about cultural and historical factors that affect church growth and decline and consider how that information can be helpful in planning for the future of Advent. As a result of their leadership, we have hired Rev. Bob Tate to consult with us about parish renewal.

The maintenance of our exterior and grounds was assessed and areas that need to be addressed identified. The vestry considered and voted on funding exterior painting and some landscaping changes.

As usual, several key figures were involved in keeping us looking good: Jean Scherfcunningham and Dennis Cunningham for watering our new sod. Karl, Lauren and Heidi New deserve special kudos for their help in both the spring and the summer with outdoor property care. Others came in on spring clean up day and got us started for the season. In the fall, Eileen Johnston, Dave Walton and Kathleen Caughie helped the usual suspects clean up all the leaves that had fallen, and we even got many bulbs planted for our enjoyment in the spring.

- John Caughie and Dennis Cunningham installed posts for banners
- Drew Dippre kept our ivy bed weeded this summer, until new sod was installed.
- In the fall, Chuck Jay and Sue Finney built a new, safe and good-looking step outside the Byberry entrance to the Parish Hall.

Summer saw us offering our first-ever City Camp, which we called “Saints and Singers”. Attendance may have been low, but enthusiasm was high and the kids had a blast. The counselors provided by the diocese were great. Thanks go to all who were here daily to provided support: Aylis Wolf, Janet Gilman and Deb Stoddart, and to Stan Klotzbach for his last minute help with our downstairs lighting. Thanks also go to those parishioners who entertained the counselors for dinner: Dennis Cunningham and Jean Scherfcunningham, Maureen Roberts, Dave and Cindy Cooper, Alan and Hennie Kiel, and to those who supplied goodies for the end of session celebration.

We have discovered the hospitality talents of Betty Cummings and Fred Abbonizio, who helped enliven 2 social events last fall. We hear there is more to come...

Maureen Roberts is helping make our library more user friendly

Late summer saw us transition to a new model for Sunday morning music, as Gavin McIlhinney moved out of his role as music director and Barbara Johnson began working with me on worship planning. I am very pleased with our current arrangement, which utilizes our parish music talent while still connecting us to our Anglican heritage of organ music. Carl Gedeik, an accomplished organist, has agreed to play our organ about 2 Sundays per month, plus holidays, for the foreseeable future. Carl is retired from fulltime music involvement and doesn't want an every Sunday gig, so this is a perfect arrangement for him and for us. The frosting on the cake is that Carl is a pretty neat guy and he really likes us, too!

Ash Wednesday Services

March 1, 2017

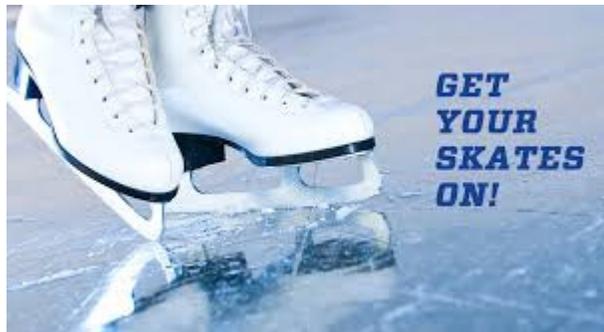

12 noon and 7:30 p.m.

Join us as we begin the journey through the season of Lent with the imposition of ashes.

Life Together

Rev. Lynn celebrates Christmas with some of our younger members—Madison, Kathleen, Reid, and Nathan.

This is the Christingle ceremony that takes place at the end of the 7:00 service.

Montgomery Deanery Skating Event

Sunday, March 5th from 2:40-4:40 p.m.

Hatfield Ice Arena, 350 County Line Road, Chalfont, PA

Cost: $7.00 admission & $3.00 skate rental.

Our Advent kids will attend for free as long as you are signed up on the bulletin board outside of Lynn's office.

No charge if you are only going to watch!

Come out for an afternoon of ice skating and fellowship for your whole family.

SOUP SALE

It comes once a year at the end of January. Support the Episcopal Church Women by buying a quart of soup for $6.00. The soup will be on sale January 29th. You are also welcome to make some soup of your own to go on sale. Containers are available in the parish hall. Any questions? Please talk to Henrietta Kiel.

Renewal at Advent

Over the past 18 months the leadership of Church of the Advent has begun to consider how best to move forward into the next years of her life. Beginning in the summer of 2015, the vestry began learning about the many challenges and opportunities for parishes our size. Last spring, I met with former senior wardens to include them in the conversation and seek their support in discovering how best to move into our future together. It was as a result of that meeting that the vestry decided to explore working with the Rev. Bob Tate as a parish consultant. Many of you learned of this decision, and met Bob at our fall 'welcome back' event.

I am pleased to announce that a small team has been identified and invited to work with Bob, and that they will begin meeting with him early next month. It will be the task of this team to prayerfully consider how best to move forward into a renewed future. As this team works together they will regularly update the vestry of their discoveries, insights and suggestions and together the vestry and I will keep the parish informed.

Please join me in welcoming Bruce Nicholson (chair), Maryann Cannon, Eileen Johnston, Karl New and Teri O'Shea to this new role of their own ministry at Church of the Advent. Please also keep the work of this team, and the individual members of the team in daily prayer as they undertake this important and exciting work.

— Lynn

SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

WELL, DID YOU?

*Did you clean out your closet?
Did you find some warm, clean clothes?
Did you bring them in to church?
Before the collection close.*

*Or did you procrastinate?
With, I will do it next week,
Not thinking how the weather
Is getting more and more bleak.*

*For us to clothe the seamen
We can't wait 'til winter's gone,
We should be doing it now
That is how God's will is done.*

*Before this month is over
Let's show them that Advent cares,
Let's make that worthy effort
Let God see that Advent shares.*

—Brian Disley

Thank you all for baking, sorting and buying
Christmas cookie tins.
The Church School raised $569 for the purchase of replacement benches for the Memorial Garden.
Please consider returning your tins to the box on the stage for future sales.

WELCOMING THE STRANGER

"I was a stranger and you welcomed me." Matthew 25:35

Stop by on a Wednesday morning, beginning January 11, and you may see a few new faces in the parish hall, as non-native English language learners join with their teacher from Welcoming the Stranger to learn computer skills. In partnership with this faith-based, non-profit organization, Advent is opening its doors to adult immigrant and refugee students, who want to learn English, develop computer skills, and prepare for U.S. Citizenship. Please welcome our guests with a smile and a friendly "hello." For more information about this very important ministry, please take a look at the literature in the narthex or go to the WTS website at welcomingthestranger.org. Sherry Eichert can also tell you about volunteer opportunities coming up this spring.

REMINDER:

While we are re-organizing our library, as quickly as we are able, we ask that you please not donate books at this time. We'll keep you apprised of our progress.

The Bishop's Bible Challenge

Join Bishop Gutierrez and other Episcopalians as we move through 2017 reading the Bible. Here is a chance to join a conversation with our bishop and other Episcopalians.

Each day there are suggested readings, but don't feel like you must stop if you miss a few days, or don't do all the readings.

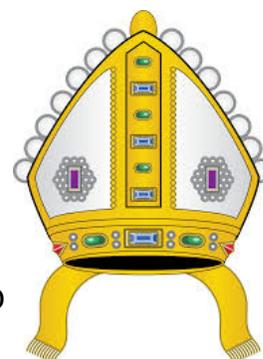

Find out more by visiting the Diocese of Pennsylvania website at:

www.diopa.org/bishops-bible-challenge/ and sign up to participate by visiting: <https://diopa.wufoo.com/forms/bishops-bible-challenge/>.
